HESSEQUA
2010

In celebration of the upcoming FIFA World Cup 2010 Soccer Tournament™, scenically picturesque Heidelberg, the Gateway to the Garden Route just 3 hours drive from Cape Town, is enthusiastically preparing to host players, their entourage and visitors during this exciting event.

The 'Hessequa 2010' Soccer Tournaments will provide a platform for various teams from across the Western Cape to compete for top honours, with amazing prizes up for grabs!

The events are aimed at attracting both local, district and provincial Soccer teams, including Junior School, High School and Open Categories - to participate in the Hessequa 6-a-side Soccer Tournament.

Heidelberg will host various age group tournaments, as well as a soccer clinic from Saturday 20 March - Monday 22 March 2010.

The exciting line-up for the 3 day festival is as follows:

20 March - Saturday:	Soccer clinic
21 March - Sunday:	Under /9 - Under /13
22 March - Monday:	Under /17- Open

In support of the Hessequa 2010 Legacy Projects

Soccer players, visitors and supporters alike, will all be able to assist the 'Hessequa 2010 Legacy Projects' simply by participating in the tournaments; visiting the stalls; spending time in Hessequa and experiencing our region.

Contributions by way of funding and support will be utilised for various Hessequa legacy projects including: Training in Emergency Services, Tourism & Hospitality industry and Entrepreneurial business skills; Small- micro & medium enterprise development; Establishment of mini-soccer courts and upgrading of soccer facilities; acquiring soccer equipment and the development and support of Hessequa Tourism-related initiatives.

Directions: An excellent road network provides easy access along the N2 from Cape Town to Heidelberg (274km); Swellendam (54km) to the west; Knysna (225km) and George (170km) to the east, or from the Klein Karoo along the R323 or R62 from Ladismith.
